Project 3: Education for Kids - Shape Recognition Game

Project Description:

Create an educational game for kids to learn about shapes. Develop a program that generates random images with different geometric shapes (circles, squares, triangles) and uses OpenCV for edge detection, contour finding, and corner detection to identify and classify the shapes. The program should draw contours around the shapes, mark corners, and ask the kids to identify the shapes.